

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

My name is Jan Lundin and I have been the English teacher for Ida for two years and I have been working with her several times a week.

Ida is a reliable and hard-working student with an impressive work ethic who always takes her assignments seriously submitting her work in time. She is well-prepared, structured and listens to feedback. She does not give up when things get difficult, she has often shown grit and determination facing challenging assignments. She has had a steady curve of improvement here with us which is evident in both her academic essays and seminar discussions.

Ida contributes to a positive working environment and positive group dynamic and comes across as very positive and eager to learn. She has humor and can laugh even in serious situations. She often helps fellow students and works well in groups, therefore she is very well respected both by her teachers and her peers.
