To whom It may concern

I write in behalf of my student Linn Joelsson at Aspero Idrottsgymnasium in Gothenburg, Sweden. She is a very ambitious and targeted person. She is well oriented and she works very independently and successfully, and her learning abilities are strong. Linn is in my view a talented student and soccer player, with high ambitions, strong interest in learning and developing new skills and knowledge. I think she has good capabilities for succeeding in her further studies, and I strongly and warm recommend her.

Sincerely,

Stefan Skarland
