

To whom it may concern

April 2023

My name is Angelica Klingberg, and I teach English and Geography at Rudbeck, an upper-secondary school in Stockholm, Sweden, where Josefina has studied. In the past three years, I have had the benefit of working with Josefina Bivstedt at a high-end sports retailer. I have encountered her admirable work spirit and ability always to run the extra mile in customer service and sales.

Josefina is a student who foremost cares about her studies but still manages to do incredibly well in her occupation. She is ambitious and kind, and her ability to balance education, work and life is astonishing. Due to the development I've seen in her over the past few years, I would say she is ready to challenge herself even further in college.

Finally, her positivity and curiosity are truly a benefit for her in a new situation such as college; I believe that she will fulfil all educational demands and be a great team player in both sports and academics.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Angelica Klingberg'. The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping tail on the 'g'.

Angelica Klingberg
Teacher in English and Geography at Rudbeck, Sweden.
angelica.klingberg@rudbeck.se