

To whom it may concern,

My name is Olof Larsson, and I teach English at Hulebäcksgymnasiet (Hulebäck High School). I have had the privilege to teach Lovisa Gustafsson for the past few years. Lovisa's journey as a student is commendable. While she may not have started as a top performer, her trajectory has been nothing short of impressive, showcasing her potential for future excellence.

Lovisa's dedication to her studies, despite her numerous commitments, stands out. As a senior, she has managed to juggle her responsibilities in a university preparatory program, her passion for high-level soccer, and her job as clothing sales assistant. This balance is a testament to her determination, time management skills, and resilience.

Lovisa's open-minded and motivated nature undoubtedly must make her a valuable colleague at her workplace. In the classroom, she has always been a pleasure to work with, and I can only imagine this translates seamlessly into her professional environment. Furthermore, Lovisa's straightforwardness, honesty, and high personal standards consistently shine through in her interactions with both peers and teachers.

Soccer, being a significant part of Lovisa's life, has undoubtedly shaped her discipline and work ethic. Playing almost daily at a high level, she has developed a resilience and determination that she seamlessly transfers to her academic and work pursuits. Beyond soccer, Lovisa has told me that she values spending quality time with friends and family, engaging in activities that strengthen her bonds with loved ones.

In conclusion, Lovisa Gustavsson is a rising star, showing immense potential for future achievements. Her ability to balance academics, athletics, and work responsibilities speaks volumes about her character and dedication. I am confident that she will continue on this upward trajectory and bring a wealth of talent and determination to any institution. I highly recommend her.

Sincerely,

Olof Larsson, teacher in Swedish and English at Hulebäcksgymnasiet, Sweden
