

STATS 2024–2026

RONJA CANNEHAG

Sweden National Team | Karlskoga Bats
SS / 2B | Born 2009

Ronja is one of Sweden's most promising young softball players. She started playing baseball and softball in 2018 and has been part of the Swedish national team since 2023. She usually plays domestically for Karlskoga Bats, and has represented Sweden in multiple international tournaments, including the U18 and U-22 European Championships. Ronja is a technically skilled middle infielder with strong hitting, speed, and reliable defense. One of her key strengths in the middle infield is her excellent range, combined with high softball IQ that lets her consistently read plays and stay a step ahead of the ball.
